

Henry Rayburn

WEBB Auction
"Emily's Dream"

Value: $1,800.00

Acrylic on Board, 24 x 48 in.

Emily's Dream was inspired by Max Weber's "Conversation" which is part of the McNay's permanent collections. Henry discovered the piece while planning an exhibition at the McNay as part of the Artist Looking at Art Series. The piece uniquely captures Henry Rayburn's passion for the collage feel in paint form.

Henry started his career in architecture but followed his hearts' desire in 1985 into the world of art. Henry recent work has focused on both two-dimensional and three-dimensional assemblages. His work can be serious, quiet, and subtle for whimsical, loud, and fun.

Max Weber
Conversation 1919
Oil on canvas, 42 x 32 in.
Collection of the McNay Art Museum,
Museum purchase

Henry Rayburn largest project to date is the exterior of the Maruy Maverick Jr. Library as part of San Antonio's Design Enhancement Program. Henry's work was incorporated into the architects' early design ideas.

Website: <http://web.mac.com/henryrayburn>