

Luis Valderas

WEBB Auction Piece
“All Roads Lead to America”
Value: $1200
Limited Edition Serigraph – 27 x 39 in

“Aparicion”
Digital Print 20 x 16 in

Artist Statement – The conflict between the real world (conscious thought) and the unreal world (unconscious thought) is both universal and timeless. It is a theme that can be found in modern popular culture as well as ancient mythology, a theme that has inspired me as an artist.

For more information on Luis Valderas' work please visit:
<http://www.projectmasa.com/LuisBio.html>

“United States of La Muerte”
Limited Edition Serigraph 22 x 28 in

“...the imagery of rockers and calaveras is my attempt to reconcile my fears, hopes, and dreams about the future, a future that will be determined by the conscious and unconscious actions of both the past and present. I create to see the world more clearly, to gain insight via hindsight. In short, my work is a celebration of life that also questions and criticizes our universal indifference to the co-existence of so many things...”